

Holiday Gifts that Serve a Greater Good and Help the World!

September 14, 2009 by

Julia Bodeeb

Buy sterling silver "dog tag" necklaces with messages of peace such as 'Peace, Salaam, Shalom' and inspirational quotes about peace by Mother Teresa, Walt Whitman, and other notable people. This company was founded by the daughter of a veteran to honor his memory. All net proceeds from sale of the peace tags are donated to charity. For more information go to: www.peacetags.org.

Check out www.biddingforgood.com to bid on items to raise funds for schools and other worthy causes. Items up for bid on the day I last looked at the site included a Steinway piano, a signed baseball, and tickets to a Giants vs. Raiders game. This site is fun to check out as the items to bid on change frequently. Find some unique gift ideas here!

Buy a replica of a vintage charity group t-shirt from the 1970s or 1980s! Twenty percent of all profits are donated to charities such as the Multiple Sclerosis Society and cancer groups. Go to www.giveandtaketees.com.

Buy fair trade items at www.worldofgood.com. This site offers cute jewelery, crafts, fashion accessories, home décor items, and a wide range of items from all over the world. Shop for free trade items and help artists and entrepreneurs all over the world!

At Build a Nest shoppers will find jewelry, crafts, home décor items, papers, bath and body items and stuff for kids too. This website helps women around the world raise funds via creating crafts. Go to www.buildanest.com for more information.